- f. Have been an active fundraiser or sponsor
- g. Consistently part of volunteerism in the club
- h. Any golfing achievement that has brought honour to the club
- i. Achieve a major role in golf administration at regional, national or international level

14.3.No more than two Honorary Life Memberships will be awarded in any calendar year.

15. VISITORS AND TEMPORARY MEMBERS

Any ordinary member may introduce visitors.

15.1.It shall be a condition precedent that the member effecting the introduction shall enter each visitor's name, address, and date of visit immediately on entering the clubhouse in a book to be kept for the purpose called a "Visitor's Book"

15.2.No visitor shall be supplied with excisable liquor in the Club premises unless on the invitation of and in the company of the introducing member.

15.3.The charge for visitors shall be fixed from time to time by the Management Committee which is also empowered to make regulations for the admission of non-playing visitors.

15.4.Every playing visitor must pay required green fee for the day and must enter their name on green fee book and date on which they are using Course and Club facilities.

15.5.The payment of the Green Fee shall entitle the visitor temporary membership of the club for that day.

15.6.The Management Committee shall have power to suspend the rules permitting the introduction of visitors or temporary members at any time and refuse permission for any particular visitor or temporary member to use the Clubhouse or Course.

15.7.Competitors in Open Club Competitions limited to one day shall be eligible for Temporary Membership status on the day of the Competition only.

15.8.Any office bearer or any two Members of the Management Committee may (and without assigning any cause if they so think right) cancel the admission of any Day Visitor or Temporary Member whose admission may be deem objectionable, or who deliberately breaks any of the Rules, By-Laws or regulations of the Club.

15.9.The fee paid by any such Visitor or Temporary Member may at the discretion of the Management Committee, be either forfeited or refunded.

16. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

If the conduct of any member is considered likely to endanger the welfare or good order of the Club (including Breaches in the Rules of Golf including etiquette indicated in the Rules of Golf) and of circumstances of such conduct brought to the notice of the Management Committee and the Committee having given the member against whom the complaint is made, an opportunity of refuting or explaining the allegations in person and having considered any evidence he may wish to tender and any other relevant evidence and having fully considered the matter, shall be empowered to take action as they deem fit including the expulsion of the member from the Club. No member shall be expelled under this Rule unless at least 10 members of the Management Committee are present and two thirds of those present votes in favour of the expulsion of the member. Any member expelled under this rule shall immediately cease to be a member and shall forfeit his or her subscription. Voting on the question of expulsion of a member shall be by secret ballot.

17. RULES OF GOLF AND LOCAL RULES

17.1.The Rules of the game of golf for the Club shall be the Rules of Golf as approved by the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrew's.

17.2. In addition, the Management Committee shall from time to time, prescribe such Local Rules as it considers necessary having regard to the nature of the Course or otherwise, provided such Local Rules are not contrary to or at variance with the Rules of Golf or directives issued by Golf Ireland.

18. PLAYING FACILITIES

18.1. The Management Committee shall prescribe the days and times when the members of the Club have the use of the Course for competitions or when the Course is reserved for team matches or Union, Branch or District events.

18.2. The Management Committee shall also decide on the facilities to be afforded to Societies subject to the provision that the 1st tee shall be reserved for Club members on any day a Society outing is permitted for such periods as are considered necessary for the convenience of the members.

18.3. The Committee shall also be empowered to direct the days and times when Junior Members shall have the use of the Course and generally regulate the use of the Course for the benefit of all the members.

19. DISCIPLINE

19.1. The Management Committee has a supervisory role in monitoring the observance by the members of the rules and regulations governing the Club. Without prejudice to the foregoing, breaches of the rules or regulations or other unacceptable behaviour shall be dealt with by a disciplinary committee, which shall also have the power to enforce penalties such as reprimand, exclusion, suspension or expulsion.

19.2. The Disciplinary Committee shall comprise of the Club secretary of the Club together with the Men's Captain and Ladies' Captain. If a member of the Disciplinary Committee resigns or is the subject of a disciplinary hearing or is otherwise unavailable, the Management Committee shall nominate a replacement as is necessary.

19.3. The Disciplinary Committee shall have power to make recommendations and reach decisions on all matters of discipline. The Disciplinary Committee shall ordinarily investigate only those complaints which have been made to it in writing or where the matter to be investigated is of such a public nature that the Committee may feel it imperative to take immediate action on its own initiative.

19.4. The Disciplinary Committee shall have power to make recommendations and reach decisions on all matters of discipline.

19.5. The Disciplinary Committee shall ordinarily investigate only those complaints which have been made to it in writing or where the matter to be investigated is of such a public nature that the Committee may feel it imperative to take immediate action on its own initiative.

19.6. The Member(s) about whom the complaint is made shall be informed in writing that she/he has been the subject of a complaint and shall be invited to give any observations or explanations in writing within a specified time.

19.7. The Committee shall take this response (if any) into account before coming to a decision and it shall immediately inform the person, against whom the complaint was made, of the decision.

19.8. The person(s) complained of shall always have the right to be heard by the Disciplinary Committee.

- 19.9. Any Member who has been the subject of a complaint may appeal that outcome to an Appeals Committee comprising three members appointed by the Management Committee.
- 19.10. The Appeals Committee may hear the appeal as if it was hearing the complaint for the first time or it may decide to confine itself to the stated grounds of appeal. The person against whom the complaint was heard shall at all times have a right to appear before the Appeals Committee. The decision of the Appeals Committee shall, as far as The Ballina Golf Club is concerned, be final and binding. If a member of the Appeals Committee resigns or is otherwise unavailable, the Management Committee may co-opt a replacement. The Appeals Committee shall also have the power to enforce penalties such as, reprimand, exclusion, suspension or expulsion.
- 19.11. A member who is excluded, suspended or expelled shall not be entitled to a refund of any portion of his/her Annual Subscription or any levy paid by the member.

20. PERSONAL PROPERTY

Any personal belongings of members, visitors and others, brought to or kept at, or left on the premises of the Club (either in the Club House, in the Car Park or on the Course) shall be at the sole risk of the owners, and neither the Club nor any Committee shall be responsible for any loss or damage thereto arising; but this rule shall not prejudice any claims by the Club or the owners against Insurance Companies in case of fire, or when otherwise covered by Insurance.

21. CHANGE OF RULES

- 21.1. Save for the Appendices to this document and as outlined therein or for the purposes of complying with the law or the Rules of Golf, no rule of the Club shall be repealed or altered or new rules made except at a General Meeting and by vote of the majority of those present and voting at such Meeting, and written notice of the proposed change must be sent to the Club secretary with the names of the proposer and seconder attached, at least 7 days previous to the Meeting at which it is to be considered.
- 21.2. The Club secretary shall place the notice on the Agenda and post same in the Club House with name of proposer and seconder attached.
- 21.3. The Club secretary shall place the notice on the Agenda of the Club concerned, acquaint the Management Committee of same, and post notice in Club House.
- 21.4. Any repeal, alteration or new rule so passed is subject to approval of the Management Committee of the Club.
- 21.5. The Management Committee may alter or add to the Rules for the purpose of complying with the provisions of the Registration of Clubs (Ireland) Act, 1904/1999, The Intoxicating Liquor Act, 2000 or of any Act which may be passed amending same, but except for this purpose, no Rule of the club may be repealed or altered, or new Rule made, except at a General Meeting, where a majority of the votes cast are in favour.
- 21.6. No rule may be introduced which contravenes
- a. The Rules of Golf
 - b. The Registration of Clubs Act, 1904/1999
 - c. The Intoxicating Liquor Act, 2000
 - d. The World Handicap System
 - e. The Children's Act 2005

22. THE REGISTRATATION OF CLUBS ACTS AND THE INTOXICATING LIQUOR LEGLISLATION

The provisions of Section 56 of the Intoxicating Liquor Act, 1927 as substituted and amended by Section 6 of the Intoxicating Liquor Act, 1960, Section 6 of the Intoxicating Liquor Act,

1962 and Section 7 of the Intoxicating Liquor Act, 2000 and any applicable amendment thereto, are hereby incorporated in these Rules and shall apply as if same were comprised in this rule of the club and set out in detail.

23. DOCUMENT CONTROL

23.1.This document shall be effective from December 01st, 2021 and shall replace any and all other Club Rule Books or Constitutions.

23.2.The document shall be stored on the Club's server and in the event of a dispute, the electronic version so stored shall be considered the definitive version.

23.3.The Club secretary of the Club shall be the custodian of the Club Constitution and shall update the document as and when required.

23.4.The Management Committee shall review this document once a year as to its effectiveness.

24. STANDING ORDERS FOR GENERAL MEETINGS

24.1.The decision of the Club Chairperson on matters of procedure and on the interpretation and application on the standing orders shall be final.

24.2.In the event of a dispute the right to address the meeting at any particular moment shall be determined by the Club Chairperson who shall have the right to direct any speaker to discontinue his address for irrelevance or repetition.

24.3.No member may speak twice on the same Motion or item on the agenda. The proposer of a substantive motion may, however, exercise a right of reply immediately before the taking of a vote.

24.4.Notwithstanding anything in the rules to the contrary, the Club Chairperson may allow a member who has already spoken to rise upon a point of explanation. Such point shall be limited to clearing up a misunderstanding arising from the member's previous speech. A point of explanation may be made only between speeches.

24.5.A point of order shall consist solely of a question directed to the Chair calling for a ruling upon whether a standing order has been contravened. A member rising upon a point of order shall confine his remarks solely to the alleged violation of the standing orders. During the address of the Club Chairperson no point of Order shall be entertained.

24.6. Voting on any question, except as otherwise provided, shall be on a show of hands subject to the provision that voting on any question shall be by secret ballot if a demand for a ballot is made before the question is put and approved by a show of hands by the majority of members present.

24.7.Any question put shall save as otherwise provided by these rules, be decided by the majority of votes cast thereon. In the event of an equality of votes, the Club Chairperson shall have the casting vote.

24.8.Disputes on matters of procedure shall be determined by the Club Chairperson having regard to the Rules of the Club.

24.9.Amendments from the floor on the occasion of a meeting will only be taken if the proposer and seconder of the original motion agree that it should be taken and a vote in respect of such amended motion shall be taken in priority to the original motion.

24.10.Proposed amendments, properly before the meeting, shall be voted upon subsequent to a vote on the original motion. In such event the motion achieving the maximum vote shall prevail.

24.11. The following shall be privileged motions upon which no discussion shall be allowed and which shall not require the suspension of the Standing Orders:

- 24.11.1. That the meeting moves to the next business
- 24.11.2. That the meeting be adjourned
- 24.11.3. That the question be now put
- 24.11.4. That the question not be put

The Club Chairperson shall have absolute discretion in allowing or disallowing the introduction of a privileged motion.

APPENDIX I

COMPETITIONS

1. All matters in connection with competitions shall rest with the Competitions Committee of the Men's and Ladies Clubs respectively, save that competition dates in the Club's Competition Fixture Diary will be strictly adhered to unless the fixture is varied or deferred by the Men's Committee and by or the Ladies Committee.
2. A Competitor shall be disqualified in any Competition unless he or she has previously paid his or her entrance fee and entered the competition in the designated mode. The disqualification shall not affect the legality of his or her opponents' score.
3. In the event of a player being unable to find a partner in a competition, a member of the Competition Committee, Honorary Club secretary or Professional may appoint a special marker.
4. On the day of competition, no player shall be permitted to practice on the course or to the greens other than in the specified practice areas or save in the ordinary course of play.
5. Players failing to tee off at the time booked on the timesheet are not permitted to play in the competition of the day.

6. Captains' Prize

1. Men's Captain's Prize

In order to win First, Second or Overall Gross prize in the Men's Captain's Prize a member must have played in and returned cards for at least eight(8) qualifying competitions in that year.

The eight qualifying competitions shall be made up as follows:

1. Any Sunday or Open competitions between the Captain's Drive off and the week preceding the Captain's Prize;
2. Participation in the Club singles or pairs Matchplay Competitions will each be considered as one qualifying competition.
3. Participation in the Winter or Spring League will each be considered as one qualifying competition

6.2 Ladies' Captain's Prize

In order to win First, Second or Overall Gross prize in the Ladies' Captain's Prize a member must have played in and returned cards for at least five(5) qualifying competitions in that year.

The five qualifying competitions can be made up of any combination of the following:

1. Any Sunday competitions between the Captain's Drive off and the week preceding the Captain's Prize;
2. Any 18 hole Club Thursday competition between the Captain's Drive off and the week preceding the Captain's Prize;
3. Any 18 hole Club Open competition between the Captain's Drive off and the week preceding the Captain's Prize

7. Except as otherwise laid out in this document, the eligibility of Junior and Student Members to win prizes in Club Competitions shall be decided by the respective Men's or Ladies' Competition's Committees.

8. In Club Foursomes and Fourball Competitions a competitor must declare the name of his/her partner at the time of entry and the use of the word "partner" or similar term is prohibited. If such words are used the competitors' name may be deleted from the timesheet.
9. The Management Committee, in consultation with both the Men's and Ladies' Competitions Committees may make changes to this appendix as and when required.

APPENDIX IITHE COURSE

1. If a match fails to keep its place and loses more than one clear hole on players in front, it should allow the match following to pass. Players in a competition shall have precedence both in starting and through the green over players playing ordinary matches.
2. No player may practice putting on the greens, save in the ordinary course of play.
3. Players must play the course and format of the day and are precluded from playing outside such course as has been designated for the day unless permitted otherwise.
4. Before leaving a bunker, a player should carefully fill up and smooth over all holes and footprints made by the player therein.
5. In the general area and on the practice areas a player must ensure that any turf cut or displaced by the player is replaced at once and pressed down and any damage to the putting green made by a ball or the player is carefully repaired. Care should be taken to ensure that no damage is done to the hole or the surrounds of the hole when attending the flagstick. The ball must not be removed from the hole with a golf club or putter.
6. Players in competitions less than 18 holes (except Winter League Competitions) must alternate with persons playing a fuller round save where such other persons have ignored the course of the day and in such event the competitors playing the lesser round shall have priority.
7. Equal rights of play shall exist at all times for male and female members.
8. Member's time will not be encroached upon, unless specifically approved by Management Committee in consultation with the Men's or the Ladies Competitions Committee as appropriate.
9. The Management Committee may make changes to this appendix as and when required.

APPENDIX IIIGENERAL

1. All loss or damage to the Club property must be made good by the person responsible.
2. Lockers can be rented annually and the charge for lockers shall be fixed by the Management Committee each year, payable in advance, at the same time as the annual subscription.
3. No notice, advertisement, or such similar material from another club or business, shall be placed on display in or around the Club House without the prior approval of the Honorary Club secretary who shall be entitled to remove any such unauthorised material.
4. Dogs or other pets are not permitted in the Club House or on the course.
5. All persons are required to be suitably and acceptably attired as directed by Management Committee from time to time.
6. The Club accepts no responsibility for any thefts, loss or damage to the property of any member, visitor or guest, while in the Club, The Professional Shop, the car parks, course or other property within the grounds of the Club.
7. All players shall be suitably equipped.
8. Guests of an Ordinary Member(Full), Veteran Member, Honorary Member and Honorary Life Member when duly signed in and playing with such member shall be entitled to play at such concessionary Green Fee and subject to such criteria as Management Committee shall determine from time to time. Such members may sign in up to three(3) guests.
9. The Management Committee may make changes to this appendix as and when required.

APPENDIX IVDRESS CODE

1. Smart casual wear is the minimum standard expected on the golf course and in the clubhouse at all times.
2. Tailored shorts may be worn on the golf course with appropriate sports socks.
3. Trouser legs must not be tucked into socks.
4. Hats and caps must be worn as they were designed.
5. Golf shoes must be worn on the golf course (soft spikes are recommended) and are not acceptable in the upstairs bar/restaurant areas of the clubhouse.
6. No beach, sports tops, swim or gym wear to be worn on the course or in the club house.
7. Neat casual wear must be worn in the clubhouse at all times.
8. Denim jeans may be worn but they must be smart, worn properly around the waist, and not ripped or torn.
9. Operation of a mobile phone on the Course is only permitted in the case of an emergency.
10. It is recommended that mobile phones should be switched to "silent", when in the bar/restaurant areas. The foyer or balcony may be used to make or receive calls.
11. Club staff are authorised to approach Members and Visitors if the dress regulations are not being adhered to.
12. The Management Committee may make changes to this appendix as they deem appropriate.

APPENDIX VIIREBATE OF SUBSCRIPTION

If a paid-up member is unable to continue playing due to debilitating injury, illness or surgery, he/she will be considered for a rebate/credit against the following years subscription based on the club retaining 10% per month while the membership is active, plus a further 10%. The member would receive a credit for the remaining percentage. This must be applied for in writing and certified by a relevant medical Consultant.

Junior members may be certified by a medical Doctor.

e.g. A member unable to play after March would be assessed as follows - 3rd month by 10% plus 10% = 40%, thus leaving a 60% credit for the member to be credited against the following year's subscription.

After May - 5th month by 10% plus 10% = 60%, leaving 40% credit for the member
